25 Our life is as a dream; our time as a stream glides swiftly away

29 and the fugitive moment refuses to stay. The arrow is flown; the moments are gone.

34 Abide with me, fast falls the even tide; the darkness deepens.

37 Swift to its close ebbs life's little day; earth's joys grow dim,

40 it's glories pass away. rit. molto

44 Lead kindly light amid the encircling gloom. The night is dark and I am far from home.

I do not ask to see the distant shore - one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou should'st lead me on.

I loved to choose and see my path;

I loved the garish day and, spite of fears,

57 pride ruled my will. Remember not past years.

So long thy power hath blest me;

sure it still will lead me on till the night is gone;

And in the morning which I have loved long since those angel faces smile and lost awhile.
